

Lackawanna County Arts Program February 2011—conducted a visioning session, assessment of existing strategic plan, demographic and competitive changes in order to prepare a short term strategic re-direction of the department.

Luzerne County Arts & Cultural Assessment and Cultural Plan April 2007— An initial needs assessment was conducted which included an inventory of all cultural organizations in the county to determine assets, gaps, missed opportunities, and barriers. A strategic plan and an implementation plan were presented to the county commissioners to create an effective and efficient organization structure.

Study on a Coordinated Arts Delivery System- December 2006-A assessment of case studies and best practices from communities and regions throughout the United States who provide arts and cultural programs for their communities and the economic impact they generate.