

Greater Valley Technology Alliance – Technology Indicators Impact Study, July 2010 – The Institute produced an updated report tracking specific benchmarks over a five-year period. This report included a review of the region’s institutions of higher education, focusing on technology graduates, employment after graduation, resources, and research and development funding. It follows a 2007 summarization of assessment of technology initiatives.